

ELADIO FERNANDEZ
Export Manager
Bodegas Muriel

Eladio Fernandez has been working in the Spanish wine business for the past 20 years. This native of the Rioja wine region started his professional life in the wine industry with Bodegas Marques del Puerto (Rioja DOC), part of the Marie Brizard Group. In 2002, he became Export Sales Manager for Bodegas Breton (Rioja DOC), and while there, Eladio was named a member of the Export Marketing Committee of the Rioja DOC Council and Rioja Exporters Group Association, based in Logrono, La Rioja.

In early 2011, Eladio brought his considerable Rioja export wine sales expertise to Bodegas Muriel (Rioja Alavesa), where he is currently overseeing all domestic and export sales for this growing family-owned winery.

Eladio was born in Logrono and studied abroad during high school in Great Britain. He received a degree in architecture from the University of Navarra, in Pamplona and further education in wine marketing and management in Logrono, where he currently resides with his wife and two children.

#