

MACAW 101

- Produced in South of Brazil – Serra Gaucha;
- Hand-picked grapes for harvest;
- High-technology applied in the production: vinimatic system;
- Low-alcohol wines – from 11 to 11.5%;
- Tradition: produced by Perini Family, one of the most traditional producers of Brazil;
- Easy-to-drink with good natural acidity being easy pairing with many types of food;
- Fun in a bottle – colorful package, screw cap and lighter bottles;
- Innovation for the wine lists – new and unique in the market;
- Off-dry Moscato (comparable with Pinot Grigio and Sauvignon Blanc, crisp and refreshing);
- Smooth Merlot;
- Off the beaten track Tannat (French variety rich in tannins and structure but very well balanced in this wine);
- Fruity Cabernet Sauvignon (it is a light Cab, fruit forward and low in alcohol content).
