- 89 –WINE ENTHUSIAST, Nov. 2014

“This medium-bodied red weaves together sensations of mature dark cherries, crushed raspberries, forest floor and sweet baking spices. The fresh palate is supported by firm, chewy tannins and will offer easy drinking enjoyment through 2015.”

- 89 –Robert Whitley – CREATOR’S SYNDICATE, May 9, 2014

“This Nebbiolo d'Alba may not have the firmness of a top-notch Barolo or Barbaresco, but it makes up for that in the flavor arena, delivering the classic sour cherry and earthy, tarry aromas you expect to find in a good Barolo. Drinkable now but better in a few years, this is an inexpensive taste of what the Piedmont region does best.”
