Georges Duboeuf is the #1 selling brand of Beaujolais in the world and the world's highest scoring French wine brand under $20.” – Wine Advocate

2014

- 89 Pts. VINOUS, August 2016 Issue

“Ruby-red. An explosively perfumed, complex bouquet evokes mineral-accented red berries, potpourri and Asian spices. Concentrated yet lithe, showing excellent clarity and lift to the raspberry liqueur and bitter cherry flavors, which are given spine by juicy acidity. Shows impressive power and vivacity on the strikingly long, seamless finish, which is framed by fine-grained, harmonious tannins.”

1993

- 90 Pts. Wine Advocate #92, April 1994 Issue

“As in 1991, the Beaujolais region was able to harvest nearly two thirds of its crop under splendid weather conditions, escaping most of the damage caused by the deluges that swept across France. The “King of Beaujolais”, Georges Duboeuf, has recently released many of his flower label bottlings and separate domaine bottlings of 1993 Beaujolais. They are once again excellent wines that represent terrific values. Recent medical news that moderate red wine consumption can have positive health benefits should help increase the sale and consumption of Beaujolais! After years of ignoring my advice, even my teetotalling mother now consumes a few glass of Beaujolais each day. High quality, low prices, and numerous possibilities for pleasure is all there can be said about Duboeuf’s first releases from the 1993 vintage!”
