“Extremely ripe yet fresh aromas of blackberries, blueberries as well as hot-stone character. Medium body, polished tannins and a savory finish. Firm and caressing. Solid tannins. Drink or hold. A wine to age!”

Old vines on the slope of the Côte du Py have given a cru wine that certainly has structure. It has vivid red-cherry fruits, lightly spiced and peppery. With its attractive acidity and bright fruity character from the latest generation of the Descombes family who have been growing grapes in Morgon since the French Revolution, it will be ready to drink from late 2017.

- 90-92 Pts. Wine Advocate – Aug. 30, 2016

“The 2015 Morgon Jean Descombes Cote du Py, a sélection parcellaire, has a voluminous, intense bouquet of dark cherries, creme de cassis and strawberry preserve aromas that are well defined. The palate is medium-bodied with a slightly jammy entry, full of sugary/confectionary notes, yet it maintains sufficient freshness and there is a lovely sweet kirsch and blood orange finish. Very fine.”

- 90 Pts. Vinous – August 2016

“Deep ruby. A suave, expansive bouquet evokes fresh red fruits, blood orange and potpourri, and a smoky mineral element adds vivacity. Elegant, juicy and precise, offering sweet raspberry, cherry and floral pastille aromas and a hint of spice-cake. Supple tannins lend shape to a long, penetrating finish that strongly echoes the red fruit and floral notes.”
