2017

- 93 Pts. – James Suckling, Dec. 21, 2018

“An opulent and juicy red with dark berries and undertones of earth and walnuts, following through to a medium body, soft and silky tannins and a beautiful finish. Lovely length to this. Drink or hold.”

- 91 Pts. – Wine & Spirits, April 2019

“Gérard Charvet makes this wine at his family’s domaine; it’s bottled by Duboeuf. Packed with earthy tannins, this is a mineral-driven Moulin-à-Vent with brisk strawberry notes washing over the cool earth tones. It has the structure to benefit from a year or two of bottle age.”

- 90 Pts. – Wine Enthusiast, March 2019

“Partially aged in wood, this smoothly textured, dense wine is packed with black fruits, bright acidity and spice. The fresh edge contrasts with the dry tannins that will soften as the wine develops. Give this wine until 2020 before drinking.”

2016

- 93 Pts. – James Suckling, Feb. 22, 2018

“This shows the focus and brightness of the 2016 vintage. Medium-bodied, tight and bright with sliced lemons and hints of flowers. Juicy and pretty. Drink now or hold.
