Morse Code Shiraz

“Highlights”

2011

- Wine Spectator – Today’s “Under $15” Wine Pick, Feb. 12, 2014

“Polished and smooth, this offers pretty blackberry and spice flavors on a supple frame. The finish echoes pleasantly.”

- ‘Silver Medal’ – Los Angeles International Wine Competition, 2014

2009

- Wine Advocate #191, Oct. 2010

“The 2009 Morse Code Shiraz sees no new wood and just a little seasoned oak. Deep garnet-purple in color, it is intensely scented of warm blackberry, blueberry, eucalyptus and a touch of forest floor. High acid and plenty of juicy berry fruit with a low level of soft tannins are all in harmony on the palate leading to a long dark berry finish...”

2008

- ‘Best Buy’ – Wine Enthusiast, Feb. 1, 2010

“Intensely fruity and fresh, with mounds of blueberries and raspberries carried by a slightly syrupy mouthfeel.”

- ‘Smart Buy’ – Wine Spectator, May 31, 2010

“Ripe and velvety, with juicy blackberry and plum flavors, plus a nice hint of roasted meat, on a supple frame...”
