

Matetic EQ Sauvignon Blanc

“Highlights”

2010

- 89 – WINE SPECTATOR, Dec. 31, 2011

“Lively and very refreshing, with crunchy white peach, lime and gooseberry notes leading to the crackling, fleur de sel-tinged finish. Drink now.”

2009

- 92 – WINE & SPIRITS, Feb. 2011

“Prior vintages of EQ Sauvignon have been ripe and unctuous. This one is different, marked by citrus aromas and flavors that power through the wine, along with the constant comings and goings of a mineral acidity that provide extra spark.”

- 90 – WINE ADVOCATE Dec. 2010

“Rare Chile biodynamic producer; lots of grapefruit, melon, spice notes; concentrated and long.”

2008

- 89 – WINE SPECTATOR, Dec. 15, 2009

“Racy and invigorating in feel, with mouthwatering fleur de sel and citrus peel notes that crackle through the bright, floral-tinged finish. Delicious.”

- WINE ADVOCATE, Apr. 2009

“The 2008 Sauvignon Blanc EQ delivers an attractive nose of mineral, herbs, grapefruit, and lemon-lime. Vibrant and dry on the palate, it has excellent intensity and a long fruit-filled finish. Drink it over the next 12-18 months.”

2007

- WINE ADVOCATE, Oct. 2008

“The 2007 Sauvignon Blanc EQ offers up a nose of fresh herbs and citrus. Clean, crisp, and refreshing, it will provide pleasure over the next 12-18 months.”

- WINE SPECTATOR, Feb. 28, 2009

“Nice fresh-cut lime and garden herb notes are backed by a solid floral- and mineral-tinged finish.”
