“Brilliant ruby. Smoky dark berries, licorice and a hint of violet on the pungent nose. Juicy blackberry and bitter cherry flavors deepen and turn sweeter with air while showing very good vivacity. Lingers with strong, dark-fruit-driven tenacity, with a hint of fine-grained tannins adding gentle grip.”

- 90 – Wine Spectator, Dec. 31, 2016

“This creamy red is layered with raspberry puree, plum compote and baking spice notes, which are generous and fresh. The moderate tannins are supple and integrated through the mocha-and floral-tinged finish. Drink now through 2021.”

- 90 – Wine Advocate, August 2016

“The 2015 Julienas Chateau des Capitans, of which around 10% is aged in oak, has an opulent black cherry and kirsch-scented bouquet that is lively and generous. The palate is medium-bodied with fleshy, ripe red plum and strawberry fruit, nicely balanced with a rounded, caressing finish that has just the right amount of edginess. This comes recommended - delicious.”

“This creamy red is layered with raspberry puree, plum compote and baking spice notes, which are generous and fresh. The moderate tannins are supple and integrated through the mocha and floral tinged finish.”

- 90 Pts – Vinous, August 2016

“Deep ruby. Fresh red and dark berries on the pungent, highly perfumed nose. Excellent clarity and spicy lift to the sweet black raspberry and floral pastille flavors; a hint of succulent herbs comes up slowly. Appealingly sweet and minerally on the floral-tinged, extremely long finish, which is firmed by fine-grained, gently gripping tannins.”
