SPRING MOUNTAIN CABERNET 2009

Description:

This wine is extremely well integrated with a wonderful intensity of married aromas. Hints of dark fruit, eucalyptus, fennel, blackberry and mocha just scratch the surface of the scents emanating from the glass. These aromas carry over nicely to the flavors on the palate, with added hints of currants and ripe pomegranates. Bold, rich mouthfeel on this big bodied wine carries from the entry to the finish, with restrained tannins that should lead to long aging potential as well as current enjoyment.

Winemaker's Notes:

This is the first release of this Cabernet Sauvignon from the highly regarded Spring Mountain Appellation. This release comes on the heels of just harvesting my fourth vintage from this terrific hillside vineyard. The grapes were harvested on September 30, 2009 and underwent traditional fermentation. After fermentation and prior to bottling the wine spent 20 months in 60% new French Oak.

Serving Hints:

Serve at room temperature with red meats, lamb, cheeses.
