DESCRIPTION

Intense, yellow-greenish color with a beautiful sparkle. When the glass is swirled, the typical Torrontes aromas arise with good intensity. Fruits such as fresh peach, citrus, and floral aromas of jasmine and white roses are evident. On the palate, it is a young, fresh wine with vibrant acidity and medium volume.

WINEMAKER NOTES

The grapes come from both the winery's family vineyard Dona Elsa as well as from other vineyards in Cafayate, Salta. This leads to a blend of Torrontes from very different terroirs. Cafayate, Salta is a place where Torrontes grapes fully express themselves. These vineyards have sandy, textured soils, and are of alluvial origin. The Dona Elsa vineyard has alluvial-origin, poor, loamy-sandy textured soils.

INTERESTING FACTS

Elsa Bianchi wines are named after Dona Elsa, the late grandmother of the current Bianchi owners, who started the winery with her husband. Her first home, a small "Casa" still sits among the vineyards that also bear her name.

SERVING HINTS

Torrontes is excellent on its own, or with shellfish, pastas, and spicier dishes.
