

FOOD & WINE

Click Here for More Articles on FOOD & WINE

SIMONSIG WINES and Asian Flavors- Perfect Together

by Marina Kennedy Mar. 4, 2019

Tweet

Share

Simonsig Wine Estate of South Africa produces an extensive range of formidable red, white and sparkling wines. Renowned as one of the most reputable wine producers in the region, it is owned and operated today by the family of its founder, Frans Malan.

Broadwayworld recently attended a dinner at the stylish Korean Restaurant, Gaonnuri in Midtown Manhattan where we tasted Simonsig wines that paired perfectly with Asian cuisine. They included Simonsig's Chenin Blanc, Pinotage, and Merindol Syrah.

We had the opportunity to meet, Jacques Jordaan, the Export Director and Chief Marketer for Simonsig Wines. He commented to guests, "Theres a lot of excitement about the fantastic wines we produce."

For more information on Simonsig Wine Estate, visit their exclusive importer, marketer and distributor, Quintessential Wines at <http://www.quintessentialwines.com/>.

Check out some of the photos for Simonsig Wine Estate and the people behind their fine wines.