QUINTA DO VALLADO

Douro,
PORTUGAL

Over the course of 300+ years, since 1716, Quinta do Vallado has been producing excellent wines in Portugal's Douro Valley. It is one of the oldest and most famous wineries in all the Douro, started by the legendary Doña Antónia Adelaide Ferreira, and still belongs to the same family today. It is a sixth-generation winery, currently owned by João Ferreira Alvares Ribeiro and Francisco Ferreira. The estate produced Port wines exclusively, until the 1990's when it expanded production into dry wines.

Vallado has 250 acres of its own vineyards in two sub-regions of the Douro. They are comprised of 100-year-old field blend vines, single variety plots and certified organic vineyards. The terraced vineyards are hand-harvested with one row of vines trained to a double cordon trellising system, allowing for good drainage, air flow and erosion control.

Quinta do Vallado built a state-of-the-art winery in 2009, along with an ultra-modern hotel, which was completed in 2015. These upgrades solidified the Douro Valley as a world-class tourism destination. The winery was recently named as one of the top 100 vineyards in the world and one of Wine & Spirits Top 100 producers of 2021. And in 2020, Decanter magazine bestowed the honor of one of the wines of the year to the 2019 Vallado Prima.

Vintage Ports are made in the best of the vintages, the hallmark of each Port house. Vintage Port is aged for a few years in tank or cask then bottled to finish aging in the bottle. If properly stored, these wines will age for decades throwing sediment after a few years and should be decanted.

Tawny Port wines are intended to be sweet, so fermentation is arrested halfway through the process, before all the residual sugar has been fermented through the addition of grape spirits, thus fortifying the wine and aged in 600-liter oak casks for years during which time, the complex aromas and flavors become thoroughly integrated, and the distinct hue develops.

100 years of Port is a special collection with all four aged Tawny Ports, which adds up to 100 years, a century of Port. Truly a unique gift, these smooth, richly flavored Tawny Ports come in a handsome wooden box. ** special order only **
