

Heraldry is the practice of designing, displaying, and recording coats of arms and heraldic badges. Historical records indicate that it was initiated in the 11th century and was developed for the purpose of assigning ranks to knights and nobles in the battlefield. These two heraldic shields represent the founders of the Bodegas Muriel winery.