About the winery:

In 1928 Italian immigrant Valentín Bianchi realized his dream of owning a vineyard and winery. His wines were awarded the ‘Maximum Quality Prize’ at the Official Wine Exhibition event held in Mendoza in 1934. In the early 1950s, Valentín's sons joined the successful winery which was eventually handed down to them and his grandsons. With the continued expertise of their fathers, Raul Bianchi leads the third generation to run the winery. In 1996, Raul hired famed Napa Valley winemaker Bob Pepi, as a consultant to introduce new techniques while maintaining the wines' Argentine character. Bob Pepi is an expert in vineyard management and possesses a remarkable talent at producing "wine lovers" wines.
