'Press Highlights'

2020

- 92 Pts. – James Suckling, December 8, 2021

"This shows wet-earth, stone, lemon-rind, cherry and berry character. It's medium-bodied, fresh and lively. Minerally finish. Shows length and energy. Drink now."

2018

- 93 Pts. – James Suckling, Nov. 13, 2019

"Very perfumed and fresh with aromas of sliced plums, lemon rind and orange blossom that follow through to a medium body, linear and fine tannins and a clean finish. Classy. Drink now."

- 91 Pts. – Wine Enthusiast, April 2020

"From a family-owned estate that is managed by Georges Duboeuf, this wine shows a good structure as well as ripe fruit. Tannins give weight and backbone to a wine that could well age. Drink from late 2020."

2017

- 93 Pts. – James Suckling, Dec. 21, 2018

"An aromatic and bright red with sliced mushrooms and blackberries and hints of rose petals and dusty earth. Full body. Wonderful texture and intensity. Nicely defined. Flavorful and very long. Shows focus and intensity. Drink or hold."

- 90 Pts. – Wine & Spirits, April 2019

"Duboeuf buys the entire production of this 30-acre estate, the granitic soils delivering a firm and gracious Beaujolais. This 2017 is saturated with rich flavors of black figs, a savory, tight red built for roast duck."

2016

- 92 Pts. – James Suckling, Feb. 2018

"Plenty of structure and fragrance in this spicy and lively parcel, which delivers blueberries, red plums and cherries amid fine-cut tannins. Drink now or hold."

- 92 Pts. Vinous, March 2018

Bright violet. Expansive raspberry and cherry aromas are complicated by a suave floral quality and a hint of star anise. Juicy and seamless on the palate, offering alluringly sweet red and dark berry and lavender pastille flavors that show a refreshingly bitter edge. Closes silky, sweet and impressively long, featuring a resonating floral quality and harmonious tannins.

- 90 Pts. – Wine Advocate, August 2017
