"The 2017 Saint-Amour Château de Saint-Amour is excellent, wafting from the glass with aromas of potpourri, spice and red fruits. On the palate, it's medium to full-bodied, layered and crunchy, with good concentration and length."
• 90 Pts. – James Suckling, Dec. 21, 2018
"Plum and burnt-orange aromas with hints of flowers. Medium body, lightly chewy tannins and a flavorful, clean finish. Drink now."

2016 –
90 Pts. James Suckling, Feb. 22, 2018
"A fruity and bright red with sliced-strawberry and orange-peel character. Medium to light body and a clean finish. Drink now."

2015 –
• 92 Pts. James Suckling, Feb. 11, 2017
"The perfumes rise out of the glass with joy. Stone undertones. Medium body, fine and silky tannins and a fresh finish. Very pretty. Drink now."
• 90 Pts. Vinous, Jan. 2017
"Lurid ruby. Ripe cherry and red berry preserve aromas are complicated by subtle touches of spice and candied flowers. Fleshy and broad on the palate, offering black raspberry and bitter cherry flavors that show good depth and chewy texture. Tightens up slowly with air and displays a hint of smokiness on the long, appealingly sweet finish, which leaves a sappy red berry note behind."
• 90 Pts Wine & Spirits, October 2016
"With its full-on power, this delivers concentrated strawberry, purple plum and black cherry flavors along with the grip of sandy black tannins. A clean, fruit-driven wine packed with ripeness, this has an easy appeal."
