

Flower Brouilly

“Highlights”

2022

- 92 Pts. James Suckling, April 8, 2024

“Plenty of flowers and some spices as well as red fruit. Focused and light-footed on the medium-bodied palate, this is a charmer. Good length with a touch of licorice in the long finish. Drink or hold.”

2019

- 92 Pts. James Suckling, April 23, 2021

“Aromas of red cherry, crushed raspberry, rose hip and sweet spice. It’s medium-bodied with soft, silky tannins. Sleek and delicious.”

2018

- 92 Pts. James Suckling, Feb. 18, 2019

“This is rich and flavorful with lots of round tannins and a juicy finish. Love the warmth and richness. All in fruit.”

2017

- 91 Pts. James Suckling, Feb. 18, 2019

Extremely aromatic and fresh with crushed-cherry and floral aromas that follow through to a medium body, succulent acidity, a soft texture and a juicy finish. Drink now

2016

- 91 Pts. James Suckling, Feb. 22, 2018

“Bright and fruity with some earth and spice character. Medium body, good fruit and a delicate finish for a 2016. Drink now.”

2015

- 92 Pts. James Suckling, Feb. 11, 2017

“I like the aromas of wet earth and blackberries here that follow through to a medium body, pretty fruit and a fresh and tangy finish. Very typical Beaujolais freshness and fruit. Drink now.”
