

GEORGES DUBOEU

Achievements & Recognitions

“The fact remains that after decades, Duboeuf is the dominant Beaujolais producer, no less important as an ambassador for the region than as its most revered artisan name.” - Neil Martin, Wine Advocate

Georges Duboeuf is the #1 selling brand of Beaujolais in the world and the world's highest scoring French wine brand under $20.” – Wine Advocate

2016

- 90 Pts. ‘BEST BUY’ – WINE & SPIRITS, October 2017

“Purple fruited and rich from beginning to end, this wine has some tension to it in peppery, floral spice. It has the warmth, meaty and tender, that would work well with roasted veal cheeks.”

2015

- 93 Pts. James Suckling, Feb. 11, 2017

“Wonderful aromas of blackberries, flowers and stones. Medium to full body, lovely silky tannins and a flavorful finish. Hints of tar and wet earth. A rich and gorgeous wine. Drink or hold.

2011

- 90 Pts. Wine Spectator, Feb. 28, 2013

“Well-focused and fresh, this stylish red offers creamy flavors of blackberry puree, plum pudding, graphite, anise and smoke. Well-knit, with supple tannins. Drink now through 2020.”

- 89 Pts. Wine Enthusiast, Nov. 1, 2013

“Attractive and fruity wine with a twist of tannin over the juicy yet bitter cherry fruit. The wine has a sense of structure, firm and showing some wood as well as tannin. Worth aging another year.”

2010

- 90 Pts. Wine Spectator, Feb. 28, 2013

“Refined tannins offer light grip and solid structure for lush and layered flavors of black cherry, blackberry compote, dried fig and spice box, while fresh acidity focuses this supple red through to a finish tinged with cocoa powder. Drink now through 2018.”

2009

- 90 Pts. Wine Spectator, Feb. 28, 2011

“This is packed with ripe, almost jammy, black cherry, boysenberry and damson plum fruit flavors, but it's well-balanced by integrated, juicy acidity. The fruit mixes with vanilla and clove notes, wrapping around chewy tannins that raise their heads on the long finish. Drink now through 2014.”

2003

- 91 Pts. Wine Advocate #153, June 2004

2002

- 90 Pts. Wine Spectator, Aug. 31, 2003
