“This warm, dense wine is a collaboration with a family friend of the owners—a doctor who is a wine collector. It has style and fine black fruit to balance out its dry texture. It will age well and should be drunk from 2020.” ~ May 1, 2017

“...This is a fine performance for this prestige bottling. Its main issue is that it is rather too creamy in its youth, showing too much vanilla and the general effects from the long time in oak. That said, it is beautifully structured and the mid-palate shows some finesse...” ~ #229, March 1, 2017
