2020

•94 – JAMES SUCKLING, February 16, 2022

"Wonderful purity of fruit with blackberries and flowers, such as violets and orchids. Medium to full-bodied with very fine tannins that melt nicely into the wine. Very drinkable now, but a couple of years of bottle age will make it even better. Try after 2024."

•92 – WINE SPECTATOR, November 15, 2022

"A ripe, concentrated but well-proportioned red, with rich tiers of berry and açai joining violet and five-spice accents around mineral-tinged tannins. Reveals notes of dark chocolate and molasses..."

2019

•93 – VINOUS, November 30, 2021

"...A dark dense, purple in color. The detailed aromatic profile features ripe plum, white pepper, blackberry and sour cherry liqueur alongside cedar, hazelnut and nutmeg aromas. In the mouth, it has good volume and body with firm tannins from the wood, intense flavor and a touch of juice. Time in the bottle will round out the tannins and deliver the velvety feel it's currently crying out for. Drink in two years."

•92 – WINE & SPIRITS, October 2021

"This wine manages to balance the pushed ripeness of its blue and black fruit with bright acidity and a backbone of tannin – all at once chewy, meaty and plush. Delicate florals in the finish hint at the complexity that will develop with age."

•92 – WINE ENTHUSIAST, August/September 2022 Issue

•90 – WINE SPECTATOR, December 31, 2021

"Focused, lively and fruit filled, with red cherry, blueberry and red currant flavors that are bound by crisp acidity. The taut finish has slate and cooking spice accents. Drink now through 2024."

2018

•92 – VINOUS, October 2020

"Expansive and creamy on the palate, the texture is a little earthy thanks to the tannins."
