"...Purple in the glass. The nose offers notes of spice, vanilla, hints of cedar and ripe plum and a whiff of sour cherry. On the palate, the tannins are refined and taut, delivering vivid flavor before the finish of ripe fruit."

- 94 – JAMES SUCKLING, February 16, 2022

"Wonderful purity of fruit with blackberries and flowers, such as violets and orchids. Medium to full-bodied with very fine tannins that melt nicely into the wine. Very drinkable now, but a couple of years of bottle age will make it even better. Try after 2024."

- 93, Publisher's Picks – TASTING PANEL, March 2023

"Coffee and a slightly smoky tone beckon additional notes of black plum and Worcestershire. Glossy tannins take a slight grip while wet stone and a dusty middle adds to a sensual mouthfeel. An overall great food companion"

- 92 – WINE SPECTATOR, November 15, 2022

"A ripe, concentrated but well-proportioned red, with rich tiers of berry and açai joining violet and five-spice accents around mineral-tinged tannins. Reveals notes of dark chocolate and molasses..."

- 91 – WINE & SPIRITS, December 2022

"Give this plenty of air and the raw wood aromas subside, allowing the wine's silky-rich blackberry flavors to come forward. Some coffee savor adds interest, then it's lighter and fresher than you might expect in the finish, closer to strawberry-topped angel's food cake than the black-forest-cake first impression. And though it might suggest desserts, the tannins and acidity keep enough freshness through the end for another sip."

- 91 – VINEPAIR, February 2020

"This bold and spicy Malbec is made from 60-year-old vines and aged in new French oak barrels for 14 months, giving it a concentrated and complex profile. The nose is bursting with notes of Christmas spices, sweet tobacco, and cocoa. The palate brings pops of juicy blackberries, plums, and vanilla..."
