- 92 Pts. – WINE ADVOCATE, August 30, 2019

“Tasted from magnum, the latest release of Palmer’s NV Blanc de Blancs Brut is showing very well indeed, bursting from the glass with a ripe and expressive bouquet of grapefruit, orange zest, toasted bread, white flowers and nectarines. On the palate, the wine is medium to full-bodied, with an elegantly textural attack, fine depth at the core, ripe but racy acids and a long, flavorful finish. This has always been one of Palmer’s emblematic cuvées and this disgorgement—from early 2018—would appear to be a particular success.”

- 92 Pts. – WINE & SPIRITS, December 2019

“This chardonnay has a classical beauty, the flavors sculpted out of fresh golden apples. It grows mostly in the Montagne de Reims (Trépail and Villers-Marmery) with a contribution from the Côte de Sézanne. The fruit is floral with scents of daffodils and apple blossoms, the texture luscious and round.”

- 92 Pts. – JEB DUNNUCK, April 9, 2020

“...offers up a light gold hue as well as a marine/seaside-like minerality mixed with stone fruits, citrus, and white flowers. These carry to a medium-bodied, lightly textured Champagne that has high yet nicely integrated acidity, beautiful overall balance, and a crisp, clean finish that keeps you coming back to the glass. It’s another brilliant champagne from this house to enjoy over the coming 10-15 years.”

- 92 Pts., Silver Medal – 2022 DECANTER WORLD WINE AWARDS, June 7, 2022

- 91 Pts. – WINE SPECTATOR, August 30, 2015

“A rich and toasty range of poached nectarine, honey, brioche, graphite and saline notes is layered in a sleek and well-knit package. The creamy texture carries the flavors through the clean-cut finish.”

- 91 Pts. – JAMES SUCKLING, July 11, 2022

“A focused yet creamy and rounded Blanc de Blancs with plenty of croissants, apple pie, pear tart, hazelnuts, shortcrust, white peaches and lemon curd. Soft and supple mousse. Bright finish. Drink now.”
