- 92 Pts. – WINE SPECTATOR, November 30, 2019

“This well-cut, mouthwatering Champagne shows some toast, with hints of grilled nut and spice lacing the white cherry and blood orange granita flavors as they ride the satiny mousse and minerally finish.”

- 91 Pts. – JAMES SUCKLING, September 5, 2018

“Lightly toasty and reductive edge to the nose with an array of red berries that deliver a crisp, crunchy and supple palate, where plenty of flesh and ripe peaches are on offer. Drink now.”
