

2017 'H' Syrah

94 Pts.

“The H Series hits all the right notes, and the Syrah may well be the finest of the trio. Fidelitous to its Hills origins, with a marrow of cherry cola etched with herbal tannins and a peppery skein of acidity. A smudge of black olive, a lilac whiff and smoked meat, too. All tactile enough, while hedging this mid-weight into the eminently drinkable category. Nothing hard; nothing out of place.”
