

Bodegas Muriel
Gran Reserva

2014

- 93 – JAMES SUCKLING, May 27, 2022

"Complex and ethereal dark plums, savory spices and tobacco with sweet spices, iron and dried orange peel. This is long and elegant on the palate, rounded by creamy and firm tannins. Drink or hold."

2012

- 92 – JAMES SUCKLING, March 23, 2022

"Intense aromas of figs, dried cherries, toasted coconut, caramel, mushrooms and sweet herbs. It's medium-bodied with firm, sleek tannins and fresh acidity. Rich array of spice and dried fruit, with persistent freshness. Drink or hold."

2011

- 92 – JAMES SUCKLING, September 15, 2020

A savory, earthy red with plum, tobacco, shitake-mushroom and walnut character. Medium body with a firm, silky tannined palate and a persistent finish. Lean, but fresh. Drink Now."

2010

- 93 – JAMES SUCKLING, July 5, 2019

"Lots of subtle fruit character to this wine from an excellent vintage and now showing age. Medium to full body. Fine tannins and a flavorful finish. Drink now."

- 92 – WINE ENTHUSIAST

"Ripe berry, prune and raisin aromas are at the core of a nose that's also driven by coconut and vanilla accents. A rustic mouthfeel with grippy tannins frames savory, oaky red berry and plum flavors, while tobacco and vanilla notes are corralled by a drying finish. Drink through 2028."

2006

- 91 – VINOUS, Feb. 2019

"Bright red. Pungent, spice-tinged cherry and raspberry aromas, along with hints of coconut and woodsmoke. Silky and open-knit, showing very good clarity and energy to the sweet red fruit, rose pastille and spice-cake flavors. Delivers a solid punch of flavor but comes off lithe, showing no rough edges on the long subtly tannic finish."

- 90 – JAMES SUCKLING, August 2, 2018

"Dark, earthy notes with graphite and tarry elements and rich plum essence. The palate has a smooth core of spicy plum-paste. Chocolate and dark berries to close. Drink now."
