

Gran Famiglia Malbec

'Press Highlights'

2020

- 91 – VINOUS, November 2, 2022

"...A vivid purple in the glass. The nose offers dark fruit and hints of mountain herbs alongside a whiff of cigar box. Intense and free flowing with a good but refined tannin structure that enhances the volume, it delivers plenty of juice. The warm year ensured a fruity profile overall."

2019

- 91 – VINOUS, November 18, 2021

"...Dark purple in hue, the aromas feature fresh plum, violets and country herbs with hints of vanilla and pencil box. Juicy and free-flowing with good, intense flavor, the tannins are gentle and rounded but enhanced by the precise freshness. The finish is long and fruity."

2018

- 91 – VINOUS, October 2020

"A Malbec from Los Chacayes, Uco Valley, 60% aged in new and used barrels for 10 months. Bright violet with a ripe profile. The nose offer notes of blackberry, plum and camphor with herbal hints and a cedar bed. Sensuous in the mouth, the tannins have grip while the juiciness is down to the refreshing acidity and an extractive quality that empowers the tannings. Accomplished for the style."

- 90, Silver Medal – DECANTER, July 7, 2021

2017

- 91 – Year's Best Issue - WINE & SPIRITS, October 2019

"One of the Year's Best Mendoza Malbec Wines. A classic Mendoza malbec from a venerable, old-school winery, this is warm and generous, its sweet fruit flavor fanned by smokehouse scents of oak. The applewood notes suggest a pairing with bacon-wrapped filet mignon."
