Jean Ernest Descombes
Côte du Py Morgon

92 Pts.

“Pretty aromas of rose petal, hibiscus, strawberry and pink grapefruit. It’s medium-bodied with soft, fine tannins and fresh acidity. Turns firm at the end. Drink or hold.” - April 23, 2021

JAMES SUCKLING.COM

91 Pts.

“An elegant red, fresh and medium-bodied, with fine knit to the layers of pureed black cherry, pomegranate, fig cake and star anise, supported by mouthwatering acidity and sculpted tannins. The lingering finish echoes a note of tart-tinged minerality.” – Dec. 15, 2021

Wine Spectator

90 Pts.

“Vines situated on the slope of the Côte du Py have yielded this bold and structured wine. Dark tannins and rich berry fruits are a powerful reminder of this vineyard’s potential.” March 1, 2021
