“Press Highlights”

2022

- 97 Pts. – JEB DUNNUCK, October 2024

“Kirsch liqueur, peppery garrigue, wildflowers, and graphite-like minerality all shine in the 2022 Châteauneuf Du Pape Cuvée Centenaire, a tiny production release based on very old vine Grenache from the northwestern region of the appellation. Medium to full-bodied, concentrated, yet balanced and incredibly elegant on the palate, it brings classic Grenache sexiness and will have 25 years of longevity.”

2019

- 95+ Pts. – WINE ADVOCATE, May 5, 2022

“...Aged almost entirely in foudre, it nevertheless hints at smoke and campfire on the nose while remaining dominated by black cherries and red raspberries. Full-bodied and concentrated, with ample depth and richness, this really shows its class on the long, silky, mouthwatering finish. It should drink well for upwards of a decade...”

2017

- 95-97 Pts. – WINE ADVOCATE, August 2019

“...While it started off a bit reticent on the nose, this full-bodied, silky-textured wine is a beauty on the palate, blossoming to reveal ripe cherries and thrilling notions of garrigue. Complex, elegant and long, it should be a beauty.”

2016

- 97 Pts. – WINE ADVOCATE, May 5, 2022

“...it's floral and spice-driven on the nose, with almost Campari-like notes, plus cherries and raspberries. Full-bodied, silky, long and remarkably complex, it's still a beautiful wine to drink over the next decade or so.”

- 96 Pts., Cellar Selection – WINE ENTHUSIAST, December 2019

“This is a lavishly perfumed Grenache packed with ripe blackberry and plum accented by heady vanilla and violet. It's a yielding, luxuriously textured wine anchored by sunny acidity and ripe, penetrating tannins. Hedonistic already it is capable of improving through 2030 and holding further still.”

- 96 Pts. – WINE SPECTATOR, February 29, 2020

“A seductive style, with supple-edged sandalwood, rooibos tea, mulled raspberry and plum notes all melded together atop a very silky but persistent structure. Sneakily long, with a latent tarry echo and whiff of garrigue on the finish. Grenache and Mourvèdre. Best from 2020 through 2040...”
