“Smelling and tasting of wild strawberry, honeyed apricot, and bread crust laced with a soupçon of saffron and flint, this blend of roughly half Chardonnay and a third Pinot Noir (with the rest Pinot Meunier) is ultra-suave yet giving on a broad palate tinged with orange oil and zest along with a trace of peanut shell on the long finish. The name refers to the fact that 8% of the Pinot Noir comes from a 40-year-old perpetual reserve.”
