PAYS D'OC PINOT NOIR 2022

GEORGES
DUBOEUF

Pays d'Oc

TASTING NOTES: It exudes aromas of red fruits, especially cherry and wild strawberry. With an elegant and luscious mouth-feel, the fruit forward palate has notes of spice from a subtle touch of French oak. Unctuous and delicious through the finish.

VITICULTURE: The grapes for this wine came from south-facing IGP vineyards in the Pays D'Oc department of Aude, a few miles from the Medieval city of Carcassonne, in the foothills of the Pyrenees Mountains between the lush mountains and the deep blue Mediterranean Sea, it has an ideal climate for growing grapes.

VINIFICATION: After picking and destemming, the juice is pressed, undergoes maceration and malolactic fermentation, with frequent pumping-over during the process. The wine is fermented at controlled temperatures in stainless steel tanks.

INTERESTING FACT: The wildflower pictured on the Pinot Noir label is the Red Poppy, which bloom in the fields and vineyards of the Pays d'Oc.

FAMILY: For more than four centuries, the Duboeuf family has been producing wine. Now, Georges Duboeuf is a name that needs no introduction, as he is famous for turning Beaujolais Nouveau into an international phenomenon. He cared a great deal about Beaujolais, and his dedication still resonates today – elevating both the Beaujolais region and Gamay grape to near-cult status.

Georges created Les Vins Georges Duboeuf in September of 1964. This historical date also marked the start of his wine merchant business—selecting, bottling and selling fine French wines from the Beaujolais and Mâconnais regions of Burgundy. Beaujolais Nouveau and the “Flower Label” Villages wines, wines whose labels were hand-drawn by Georges himself, are part of Les Vins Georges Duboeuf. These wines represent enjoying the simple pleasures of life such as gathering with friends and family.

Georges' son Franck now runs the business, keeping Georges' legacy front and center, with wines that express the terroir with bold character and deep flavor. Franck's son, Aurélien, has a winemaking role and his nephew, Adrien, is on the business side. Franck's wife, Anne, is managing the unique “wine-centric” museum, botanical gardens and family-friendly amusement park, Le Hameau Duboeuf.
