

POGGIARELLI BRUNELLO DI MONTALCINO

'Press Highlights'

2019

- 95 – WINE ADVOCATE, September 25, 2023

"...The wine is rich with dense fruit flavors and ripe tannins. You taste Sangiovese's skins with a hint of bitterness. However, the truly distinguishing factor of Poggiarelli is the etched mineral notes."

- 94 – DECANTER, November 13, 2023

"...Broad shouldered and sturdy, the palate broods with hints of blackcurrant offset by stony minerals. Tannins are expansive and grainy yet deftly woven into the whole. Juiciness appears toward the backend giving buoyancy. Spice notes reverberate on the finish, taking on shades of cinnamon."

- 94 – JAMES SUCKLING, September 25, 2023

"Plenty of plum and cherry character here with aromas of flowers and cherry blossom that follow through to a medium body, very fine tannins and a flavorful finish. Plenty of clean fruit at the end. Give it time to develop in the bottle."

- 93 – WINE ENTHUSIAST, June 17, 2024

"An extremely fresh, juicy nose has wild strawberries and raspberries, then guava paste and blood orange jam. The palate is equally fruit-forward, but undertones of spices and soil bring welcome balance, before a current of tannins and acid flows into a finish of tart citrus and sweet chocolate."

- 92 – WINE SPECTATOR, April 2024

"Raspberry, black currant and floral aromas burst from the glass in this fresh and distinctive red, while the fruit flavors mingle with iron, tobacco, sanguine and wild herb accents. Burly tannins emerge on the long, palate-staining finish. Best from 2026 through 2040."

2018

- 96 – THE SOMM JOURNAL, August 2025

"...The aromas of this wine, which spent two years in 500-liter French casks, are deep and dark, including cardamom, white pepper, and soy sauce. Black plum saturates the palate, layered with fig, black cherry, and graphite. The relative warmth of Poggiarelli shows in the ripe profile of the wine, which possesses no tannic aggression but does have a savory, earthy, umami nature..."

- 95 – WINE ENTHUSIAST, December 2023 Issue

"The sweet, warm nose balances delicate notes of cherry, rose and vanilla with savory streaks of soil, leather and brick dust. On the palate, dried cranberries and bitter oranges coax out the cherries' latent tartness, while the tannins are firm yet warm, creating a comforting, reliable foundation."

- 94+ – WINE ADVOCATE, March 9, 2023

"...Poggiarelli opens to a darkly saturated appearance with tart cassis, wild cherry, blue flower and grilled rosemary. The wine is structured and firm with a subdued and elegant finish..."

- 92 – JEB DUNNUCK, March 6, 2023

"...It is generous and full on the palate, with blackberry, meaty richness without weight, and velvety tannins. A persistent mineral drive coaxes throughout and propels the wine forward. Drink 2024-2034."
