2018

- 92Pts. – JAMES SUCKLING, January 2021

“Aromas of dried blueberry, dark chocolate and walnut husk. It’s medium-to full-bodied with firm, creamy tannins. Rich and polished. Give this more time. Try from 2023.”

2015

- 92Pts. – JAMES SUCKLING, January 2018

- 92Pts. – WINE ENTHUSIAST, December 2018

“Under the same ownership as the Rothschild property Château Clarke in Moulis, this estate predominately grows Merlot. This wine comes from a selected parcel that gives rich, intense and concentrated fruitiness and dense tannins. It shows a lightly burnt character from the wood aging but the blackberry fruits are dominant and ripe. Drink from 2021.”

- 90Pts. – WINE ADVOCATE, February 2018

“The 2015 Les Laurets Baron is deep garnet-purple colored with chocolate-covered cherries, red and black plums and tilled soil notions with touches of menthol, lavender and cloves. Medium to full-bodied and firmly textured with ripe, grainy tannins and sporting impressively concentrated red and black fruits, it finishes with great persistence.”
